

We are in support of the do not call list. It is very frustrating to have people call our home that we don't want calling and then when you ask them not to call or tell them thanks we aren't interested they continue to call.